The program was watched by the staff and students alike. It has received over 952 views and around 131 likes so far. The program began with the soulful rendition of 'Ae Mere Watan ke Logon' by Alaap, the Indian Music Society of college. The National flag was hoisted by the Principal Mam, accompanied the National Anthem. Next, honorable Principal Ma'am addressed the college, discussing the relevance of freedom struggle, specifically to the Indraprastha College for Women, since it was an active participant of the freedom struggle. She also deliberated on what freedom meant to every individual, in their own personal spaces and lives, in the current era. Lastly, Vidisha Srivastava, a third-year student, from the Poetry and Elocution club, concluded the event with the patriotic poem, "Sarfroshi ki Tamanna". The event ended on a warm note that filled the college community with the feeling of pride and patriotism.
