

Former Prime Minister Jawaharlal Nehru at the Museum and Archives Section of Indraprastha College for Women. In the early years, the most prominent among the colleges for women in Delhi was Indraprastha College for Women (IP College), which came into being in 1924. The result of a nationwide campaign for women's education and empowerment, the college has its origins in Indraprastha Hindu Kanya Shikshalaya or Indraprastha Hindu Girls School of 1904.(HT Photo).

